THEME

Embracing Legacy, Igniting Tomorrow: 50 Years of Psychiatric Nurses Driving Change in Mental Health and Substance Use Equality!

OBJECTIVES

Upon completion of the SAMHSA MFP/ANA 2024 Intensive Training Institute Fellows will be able to:

- 1. Examine 50-Year Progress in Mental Health and Substance Use: Assess advancements and challenges in mental health and substance use disorders over the past five decades for comprehensive insights, with a focus on contributions made by up to six current MFP/ANA Fellows and Alumni.
- 2. Formulate Strategies to Reduce Mental Health and Substance Use Disparities — The Next 50 Years. Develop actionable strategies, informed by the examination of the last 50 years, to actively contribute to reducing disparities in both mental health and substance use disorders.
- 3. Identity Nurse-Led Evidence-Based Interventions in Mental Health and Substance Use: Utilize acquired knowledge to implement interventions grounded in evidence, aiming to diminish future disparities in mental health and substance use.
- 4. Synthesize Future Impact of Mental Health and Substance Use Nursing: Examine nursing innovations influencing mental health and substance use disparities, striving for sustained improvements and a forward-looking plan.
- 5. Enhance Collaboration and Networking: Promote collaboration and networking among psychiatric nurses, healthcare professionals, and stakeholders to foster partnerships that contribute to ongoing advancements in mental health and substance use care for shaping the future.
